RE-IMAGINING THE WALL KICK-OFF CELEBRATION OCTOBER 3 @ 5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

Join TMA for the Re-imagining the Wall kick-off celebration and the opening of Memory and Reflection by artist Matt Magee.

Memory and Reflection is the first of three projects selected by a jury composed of TMA staff and members of the local arts community, and celebrates innovative contemporary art practices, the rich mural tradition, and local culture of Tucson. Future installations will feature artists Elizabeth Burden (Install February 2017), and David Adix and Craig Cully (Install June 2017).

For Magee, walls can be sites of pilgrimage and prayer, and as such hold memory and stand as vessels for remembering and reflection. His installation will feature marks and forms that refer to a language of graphemes and phonemes, the most basic written structures that hold the foundation of speech.

The celebration will be in the plaza east of the Museum's main lobby and feature light fare and refreshments. Music will be provided by Paul Hurtado and John Brett courtesy of Monument East Veterinary Hospital (<https://www.facebook.com/monumenteast/>) and Rosemont Pet Clinic. (<https://www.facebook.com/RosemontPetClinic/?fref=ts>)

To RSVP for this event, please call the Tucson Museum of Art at (520) 624-2333 ext. 111 or register for the event here (<http://www.brownpapertickets.com/event/2641737>)
